

CALL FOR PAPERS

2020 ICON•S ANNUAL CONFERENCE “PUBLIC LAW, (DIS)TRUST AND DISSENT” JULY 9–11, 2020 WROCŁAW, POLAND

ICON•S invites submissions for its 2020 Annual Conference on “Public Law, (Dis)trust and Dissent”.

OPTIONS FOR PARTICIPATING IN THE 2020 ICON•S ANNUAL CONFERENCE

1. Submit a Paper or a fully formed Panel. Paper and Panel proposals may focus on any aspect of public law, including administrative law, constitutional law, international law, criminal law, immigration and citizenship law and human rights and may address domestic, sub-national, national, regional, transnational, supranational, international and global aspects of public law. Paper and Panel proposals may be related to or distinct from the overarching themes of the Conference.
2. Propose a Forum, a new format at the Conference, consisting of a scholarly gathering of at least twelve (12) persons who commit to discussing a scholarly subject chosen by the convener of the Forum.
3. Propose a Working Group, another new format at the Conference for groups of scholars hoping to build deeper connections with a view to future collaboration on research and engagement connected to the Mission of ICON•S.

HOW TO APPLY

All submissions of Papers, Panels, Fora and Working Groups must be made through the ICON•S website by 23h59 GMT on March 1, 2020. To access the submission page, you must be a member of ICON•S. Successful applicants will be notified by April 6, 2020.

We invite potential participants to refer to the ICON•S Mission Statement when choosing a topic or approach for their Papers, Panels, Fora and Working Groups.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO SEEING YOU IN WROCŁAW!

Lorenzo Casini & Rosalind Dixon
Co-Presidents of ICON•S

Dariusz Adamski, Richard Albert, Eszter Bodnár, Gráinne de Búrca, Felicia Caponigri, Sabino Cassese, Claudia Golden, Jakub Grudniewski, Ran Hirschl, David Kosar, Nico Krisch, Joana Mendes, Radosław Michalski, Anna Śledzińska-Simon, Agnieszka Szymerowska, Renata Uitz, Sergio Verdugo, Joseph Weiler and Fred Felix Zaumseil
Members of the ICON•S 2020 Organizing Committee

#iconswroclaw

www.icon-society.org/2020-conference

